

PUBLIC SECTOR - CRIMINAL JUSTICE FUNDERS

Updated 11/30/2021

Organization	Web Address	What They Provide	Eligibility
Bureau of Justice Assistance (BJA)	https://bja.ojp.gov/funding	BJA offers funding through a variety of different programs. Its grants, training and technical assistance, and policy development services provide state, local, and tribal governments with the cutting-edge tools and best practices they need to reduce violent and drug-related crime, support law enforcement, and combat victimization.	Local, State, and Tribal
Colorado Division of Criminal Justice	https://www.colorado.gov/pacific/dcj/dcj_grants	DCJ provides assistance to state and local agencies in the criminal justice system by analyzing policy, conducting criminal justice research, managing programs, and administering grants.	State, Federal, and DOJ
Colorado Division of Criminal Justice – JAG	http://dcj.oaija.state.co.us	Crime, Legal Related, Public Safety, Social Science Research Institutes, Services; reduce or address crime, delinquency, recidivism, or improve outcomes for those affected by crime; Community Corrections, Crime Victims and Witness Programs; Drug Treatment; Planning, Evaluation and Technology Improvement	Units of Government (Municipal, County, State including Special Districts)
Colorado Offender Treatment Board	https://www.courts.state.co.us/Administration/Unit.cfm?Unit=ctb#:~:text=The%20Correctional%20Treatment%20Board%20is,the%20Correctional%20Treatment%20Cash%20Fund	Funding to support 1) Alcohol and drug screening, assessment, and evaluation; 2) Alcohol and drug testing; 3) Substance abuse education and training; 4) Treatment for assessed substance abuse and co-occurring disorders; and 5) Recovery support services	Interested organizations must coordinate and apply through their local Correctional Treatment Board. 4th Judicial District Contact: Latisha Quintana latisha.quintana@judicial.state.co.us
Council of State Governments (CSG) Justice Center	https://csgjusticecenter.org/resources/funding/federal-opportunities/	The Find a Federal Funding Opportunity database includes federal funding opportunities across issue areas such as criminal justice, substance use, mental health, housing, and others. The database presents funding opportunities that are currently open as well as those that have been offered but are not currently open for applications. Use this tool to identify what types of grants are generally available, find potential opportunities to obtain federal funding through your state administrative agency, and plan for immediate and long-term priorities.	Federal Government Agencies
Department of Health and Human Services	https://www.samhsa.gov/grants/grant-announcements/sm-18-005	FY 2018 Law Enforcement and Behavioral Health Partnerships for Early Diversion - The purpose of this program is to establish or expand programs that divert adults with a serious mental illness (SMI) or a co-occurring disorder (COD) from the criminal justice system to community-based services prior to arrest and booking. Special consideration will be given to applicants proposing to use funding to support early diversion services for veterans. Award recipients will be required to: • Convene an interagency "Law Enforcement and Behavioral Health Partnership" group that, at a minimum, must include the criminal justice system and mental health and substance use treatment and recovery systems • Develop and implement a comprehensive plan of evidence-based practices, strategies, and services using a multiagency approach that addresses the three stages of early diversion of an individual with SMI or COD prior to arrest or booking • Integrate the early diversion program into an existing system of care.	State, Local and Tribal Governments
Department of Justice (DOJ)	https://www.justice.gov/grants	The Department of Justice offers funding opportunities to support law enforcement and public safety activities in state, local, and tribal jurisdictions; to assist victims of crime; to provide training and technical assistance; to conduct research; and to implement programs that improve the criminal, civil, and juvenile justice systems.	State, Local and Tribal Governments

Department of Labor (DOL)	https://www.dol.gov/agencies/eta/reentry/grantees https://www.dol.gov/sites/dolgov/files/ETA/grants/pdfs/ETA_Funding%20Opportunities.pdf	The Office of Grants Management (OGM) provides accurate, timely, centralized grants management expertise to all Employment and Training Administration (ETA) offices and stakeholders throughout the grants life cycle. Grants are given to many different program areas including Reentering Adults and Youth. Grants have been awarded under the Reentry Employment Opportunities program and are designed to serve urban centers and areas of greatest need.	State, Local, and Federal
Department of Local Affairs (Colorado)	https://cdola.colorado.gov/funding-programs/marijuana-enforcement-grant	To provide financial assistance grants annually to local law enforcement agencies and district attorneys through the local governments for the investigation and prosecution costs associated with unlicensed marijuana cultivation or distribution operations.	Local Government
Grants.gov	https://www.grants.gov/	A hub of government grant opportunities
Justice and Mental Health Collaboration Program (JMHCPC)	https://bja.ojp.gov/program/justice-and-mental-health-collaboration-program-jmhpc/overview	The Justice and Mental Health Collaboration Program (JMHCPC) supports innovative cross-system collaboration for individuals with mental illnesses or co-occurring mental health and substance abuse disorders who come into contact with the justice system. BJA is seeking applications that demonstrate a collaborative project between criminal justice and mental health partners from eligible applicants to plan, implement, or expand a justice and mental health collaboration program.
National Association of Counties (NACo)	https://www.naco.org/	The National Association of Counties (NACo) strengthens America's counties, serving nearly 40,000 county elected officials and 3.6 million county employees. Founded in 1935, NACo unites county officials to: *Advocate county priorities in federal policymaking *Promote exemplary county policies and practices *Nurture leadership skills and expand knowledge networks *Optimize county and taxpayer resources and cost savings, and *Enrich the public's understanding of county government. NACo frequently posts announcements for funding opportunities.
National Criminal Justice Reference Service (NCJRS)	https://www.ncjrs.gov/	Established in 1972, the National Criminal Justice Reference Service (NCJRS) is a federally funded resource offering justice and drug-related information to support research, policy, and program development worldwide. NCJRS frequently posts announcements for funding opportunities, especially through the US Department of Justice, Office of Justice Programs.
National Neighborhood Watch	https://www.nnw.org/community-grant-support-programs	The National Neighborhood Watch offers community grant support to programs for crime prevention through neighborhood cohesiveness and collaboration. Grants are awarded to law enforcement, community-police partnership, company supported community programs, community impact grants, and support for animal welfare programs.	No specific eligibility found.
National Network of Criminal Justice Coordinating Councils (NNCJCC)	https://www.jmjustice.org/network-coordination/national-network-criminal-justice-coordinating-councils/national-network-criminal-justice-coordinating-councils-nncjcc-resources/	The National Network of Criminal Justice Coordinating Councils (NNCJCC) is a formal network of staff and leadership of local CJCCs that provides a forum for peer-to-peer learning among Network members and information sharing nationally to build capacity for CJCCs around the country. NNCJCC frequently posts announcements for funding opportunities.	No specific eligibility found.
Office of Justice Programs (OJP)	https://www.ojp.gov/funding	Federal funding for justice programs.	Federal
State Criminal Alien Assistance Program / Bureau of Justice Affairs	https://bja.ojp.gov/program/state-criminal-alien-assistance-program-scaap/funding	State Criminal Alien Assistance Program (SCAAP) in conjunction with the U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement (ICE), Department of Homeland Security (DHS). SCAAP provides federal payments to states and localities that incurred correctional officer salary costs for incarcerating undocumented criminal aliens with at least one felony or two misdemeanor convictions for violations of state or local law, and incarcerated for at least 4 consecutive days during the reporting period.	State and Local and also, County - Formula Funding for EPC Sheriff's Office only
State Justice Institute	www.SJI.gov	Improve the quality of justice in state courts, and foster innovative, efficient solutions to common issues faced by all courts. To fulfill this mission, SJI awards grants that benefit the nation's judicial system and the public it serves.	Local (must be through local Court Administrator)

Substance Use and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA)	https://www.samhsa.gov/grants	The Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA) is the agency within the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services that leads public health efforts to advance the behavioral health of the nation. SAMHSA's mission is to reduce the impact of substance abuse and mental illness on America's communities.	Local and State Non-profits
U.S. Department of Labor	https://www.grants.gov/learn-grants/grant-making-agencies/department-of-labor.html	Foster, promote, and develop the welfare of the wage earners, job seekers, and retirees of the United States; improve working conditions; advance opportunities for profitable employment; and assure work-related benefits and rights. (perhaps CJ programming to support reentry for trade skills and training, career development, tutoring, education subsidies, etc).	Local and State

PRIVATE SECTOR - CRIMINAL JUSTICE FUNDERS

Updated 07/08/2021

Organization	Web Address	What They Provide	Eligibility
Andrus Family Fund New York, NY	http://affund.org	Focuses on changing outcomes for youth affected by juvenile justice systems.	Must be tax-exempt under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Service
Anschutz Family Foundation - Colorado	http://anschutzfamilyfoundation.org/our-grantmaking/how-to-apply/	Supports Colorado nonprofit organizations that assist people to help themselves while nurturing and preserving their self-respect. The foundation encourages endeavors that strengthen families and communities and advance individuals to become productive and responsible citizens. There is a special interest in self-sufficiency, community development, and programs aimed at the economically disadvantaged, the young, the elderly, and the disabled.	Limited to Colorado. The foundation does not provide support for religious organizations for religious purposes. The foundation does not make grants to individuals, or for capital or building funds, deficit financing, endowment funds, special events or promotions, conferences, or graduate or post-graduate research.
Arnold Ventures (Laura and John Arnold Foundation)	https://www.arnoldventures.org/grants?focus=criminal-justice	Laura and John Arnold Foundation (LJAF) makes strategic investments in criminal justice, education, evidence-based policy and innovation, public accountability, and research integrity. In addition to these core areas of focus, we identify and pursue other high-leverage opportunities through our New Initiatives division. LJAF's grants are aligned with our Philosophy of Philanthropy and support projects that are intended to produce sustainable and scalable solutions that result in transformational change.	Support organizations that are aligned with foundation objectives
Astraea Lesbian Foundation for Justice New York, NY	http://www.astraeafoundation.org	Supports organizations and campaigns working for systemic change and resisting the criminalization of LGBTQI lives.	Specific eligibility not found. Supports organizations led by LGBTQ people of color working for racial and economic justice
Charles Koch Foundation	https://www.charleskochfoundation.org/apply-for-grants/requests-for-proposals/criminal-justice-policing-reform/	The Charles Koch Foundation requests grant proposals for research related to criminal justice reform. We are especially interested in research that: 1. Analyzes the possible personal/non-economic and economic (including employment) effects of various sentencing reform ideas on individuals, families, and communities. 2. Examines the causes, costs, and consequences of police militarization and civil asset forfeiture, including public perception of these topics. 3. Collects or creates data sets to fill scholarly gaps related to criminal justice and policing reform issues. 4. Determines the causes, costs, and consequences of overcriminalization and the proliferation of laws that carry criminal penalties. 5. Assesses the effectiveness of various penalties imposed for crimes. 6. Examines the incentives that lead to growing prison populations.	University or College
Colorado Springs Health Foundation	https://cshf.net/grants/grant-opportunities/	To provide grants that target immediate health care needs and encourage healthy living.	El Paso County and Teller County, CO
Common Counsel Foundation Oakland, CA	http://www.commoncounsel.org	Supports movement building and grassroots groups, with a focus on influencing public policy and corporate accountability.	Local and Tribal organizations

David Rockefeller Fund New York, NY	http://www.drfund.org/programs/criminal-justice/	Supports organizations that advocate for prison reform and nonprofits that provide pre- and post-release services.	Federal
Ford Foundation New York, NY	http://www.fordfoundation.org	Ford's Civil and Criminal Justice Systems program gives marginalized populations access to a robust criminal justice community committed to fairness and equal protection under the law.	International
Fund for Nonviolence	http://www.fundfornonviolence.org/	The Fund for Nonviolence cultivates and supports efforts to bring about social change that moves humanity towards a more just and compassionate coexistence.
MacArthur Foundation	https://www.macfound.org/press/from-field/call-proposals-innovative-projects-criminal-justice-reform/	MacArthur's Safety and Justice Challenge seeks applications for the second round of competition through its Innovation Fund, which supports jurisdictions across the country to design and test innovative local justice reforms to safely drive down jail usage and reduce racial and ethnic disparities in local justice systems.	International
Neo Philanthropy New York, NY	http://www.theneodifference.org/	The National Campaign to Reform State Juvenile Justice Systems works to change juvenile justice policies to enhance public safety, improve outcomes for youth and reduce taxpayer costs.	National
Open Society Foundations New York, NY	https://www.opensocietyfoundations.org	On an international scale, promotes new alliances for criminal justice reform, develops alternatives to pretrial detention and expands access to competent legal representation. 2015 NCRP Impact Awardee	Regional, National, and International
Pershing Square Foundation	https://pershingsquarefoundation.org/ https://pershingsquarefoundation.org/portfolio-organization/measures-for-justice-3/	The Pershing Square Foundation (PSF) supports exceptional leaders and innovative organizations that tackle important social issues and deliver scalable and sustainable impact across the globe. In the decade since, PSF has committed $400 million in grants and social investments across a number of fields, including health and medicine, education, economic development and social justice. By investing in pioneering individuals, non-profits and mission driven companies who dare to re-imagine the possible, PSF has helped to bring about important breakthroughs — from cancer research and small scale agriculture to criminal justice reform and educational opportunities for young people in communities around the world.	International
Public Welfare Foundation	https://www.publicwelfare.org/grants/	The Public Welfare Foundation supports efforts to advance justice and opportunity for people in need. These efforts honor the Foundation's core values of racial equity, economic well-being and fundamental fairness for all. The Foundation looks for strategic points where its funds can make a significant difference and improve lives through policy and system reform that results in transformative change. Its main programs are Criminal Justice, Youth Justice, and Workers' Rights.	Must be tax-exempt under Section 501 (c) (3) of the Internal Revenue Service
Robert Wood Johnson Foundation	https://www.rwjf.org/en/how-we-work/grants-and-grant-programs.html	The Robert Wood Johnson Foundation (RWJF) is the nation's largest philanthropy dedicated solely to health. RWJF has supported research and programs targeting some of America's most pressing health issues—from substance abuse to improving access to quality health care.	Public agencies, universities, and public charities that are tax-exempt under section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code
The Ferguson Group (TFG)	http://www.thefergusongroup.com/Services/Grants	Building on TFG's unmatched experience in promoting local governments and their partners, TFG provides clients the strategies and tools to shape national policy, obtain resources for revitalization and innovation, and get results in Washington D.C. We help our clients build stronger communities through securing federal funding through grants, federal financing tools, and project authorizations, advocating for regulatory and legislative policy changes, and strategic planning and consulting services.	State and Local
Women Donors Network San Francisco, CA	http://www.womendonors.org	WDN's Criminal (In)Justice Circle identifies, strengthens and invests in a broad network of organizations working to fundamentally change the unjust criminal justice system.	Specific eligibility not found. Support women and members of Network

Funding Sources for Data and Information Systems Development and Management

Name	Short Title	Funding Overview	Administering Agency	Website	Common Uses
First Responders-Comprehensive Addiction and Recovery Act Grants	FR-CARA	FR-CARA supports first responders in training on and in administering federally approved drugs or devices for emergency treatment during a known or suspected opioid overdose. First responders include firefighters, law enforcement officers, paramedics, emergency medical technicians, or other legally organized and recognized volunteer organizations that respond to adverse opioid-related incidents.	SAMHSA	https://www.samhsa.gov/grants/grant-announcements/ti-19-004	Funding also supports referrals and program data management.
Grants to Expand Substance Abuse Treatment Capacity in Adult Treatment Drug Courts and Adult Tribal Healing to Wellness Courts	N/A	Adult Treatment Drug Courts grants support the expansion of substance use treatment services in existing adult problem-solving courts and adult Tribal Healing to Wellness Courts that use the treatment drug court model. Treatment services include recovery support services, screening, assessment, case management, and program coordination.	SAMHSA	https://www.samhsa.gov/grants/grant-announcements/ti-18-008	Provides funding for drug treatment courts; infrastructure development for services, including adopting data systems and training for staff; data collection; participant incentives; HIV rapid testing; FDA-approved medications for medication-assisted treatment; viral hepatitis testing; and recovery housing.
Grants to Prevent Prescription	PDO	PDO supports training for first responders and other key community sectors on the prevention of prescription drug and opioid overdose-related deaths and prevention strategies, including the purchase and distribution of naloxone.	SAMHSA	https://www.samhsa.gov/grants/grant-announcements/sp-16-005	Needs assessments of prescription drug and opioid overdoses, purchasing naloxone and training for staff, community-level planning, coordination of funds, policy development, and data systems (including information management systems as well as electronic health records).
Healthy Transitions: Improving Life Trajectories for Youth and Young Adults with Serious Mental Disorders Program	Healthy Transitions	Healthy Transitions is a competitive grant that supports programs that improve access to treatment and support services for people aged 16–25 who have serious emotional disturbances or serious mental illnesses.	SAMHSA	https://www.samhsa.gov/grants/grant-announcements/sm-18-010	Adoption or expansion of information management systems, collaboration with other federal grant projects or interagency teams, and implementation of youth and family programs.
Edward Byrne Memorial Justice Assistance Grant - State	JAG	JAG supports an expansive number of criminal justice program areas, including law enforcement, prosecution, indigent defense, courts, crime prevention and education, corrections and community supervision, drug treatment and enforcement, planning, evaluation, technology improvement, crime victim and witness initiatives, and mental health programs and related law enforcement and corrections programs.	BJA	https://bja.ojp.gov/program/jag/overview	Varies widely by state based on each jurisdiction’s criminal justice needs and may include alternatives to incarceration programs, reentry strategies, data management programs, law enforcement operations, and support for evaluating program success.
Emergency Solutions Grants	ESG	ESG supports programs that assist people to quickly regain stability in permanent housing after experiencing a housing crisis and/or homelessness.	HUD	https://www.hudexchange.info/programs/esg/	Street outreach, emergency shelter construction and operation, homelessness prevention services, support services in emergency shelters, participation with data collection through Homeless Management Information Systems (HMIS), and rapid re-housing. States must share administrative funds with subrecipient local governments and may share administrative funds with nonprofit subrecipients.
Continuum of Care Program	CoC Program	The CoC Program is a competitive grant to local and regional collaborations that administer homelessness service systems, including rental assistance, supportive services, screening and assessment, and Homeless Management Information Systems.	HUD	https://www.hudexchange.info/programs/coc/	The primary source of funding for many homelessness services, including permanent supportive housing; supportive services; Coordinated Entry screening; administration; cross-system training and education, such as for law enforcement; as well as additional rental assistance.